Alternative Findings

- ☐ (1) 18 U.S.C. 3142(e)(3): There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

(Check one or both, as applicable.)

While on supervision, the defendant has received two misdemeanor convictions for disorderly conduct. Following these convictions, the Court placed the defendant on sixty days of home confinement with electronic monitoring and domestic violence counseling. The defendant was subsequently arrested for driving under the influence. That matter is pending. The Florence police report that the defendant was driving 90 mph in a 55 mph zone, that there was an open beer in the vehicle, that the defendant was belligerent and incoherent. The Court finds that the defendant's conduct, which has resulted in criminal charges three times within ten months, poses a danger to the community.
